Student In Focus: Shruti

Shruti is a student of standard 5 studying in ZP Savali school, Sangli. When Shashank, the SEAL teacher placed in the school, met her for the first few times, he noticed that she was very shy. She was a smart girl who knew the answers to questions asked in the classroom, but as her confidence levels were low, one would never see her attempting to answer. Shashank motivated her, paid close attention to her during the class and encouraged her regularly. She just needed that extra push to build her confidence. Due to this, today she is no more shy and has become quite the confident and vocal student. She has really done well in the mid-year assessments and has managed to grow by 2 levels in less than a year.
